Hernando de Soto
1496-1542

First known European explorer in Georgia

In search of God, gold, and glory

Exploration began in Florida and moved into southwest Georgia, including other areas of the southeast USA

Never found the gold he desired and he died near the Mississippi River

Introduced pigs to North America

Brought in diseases like smallpox, measles, and influenza which killed large numbers of Native Americans