Proclamation of 1763

3 main goals:
1—to make peace with the American Indians to avoid another war
2—to start a trade relationship with the American Indians (fur trade)
3—to better defend and maintain the colonies by building forts along the Proclamation Line

Georgia’s reaction: most colonist were not angered

WHY?
- Georgia was the youngest colony and needed Britain’s support
- many of the colonist lived along the coast
  -- major trade routes and ports
- Georgia gained land and resources from the Spanish
