Andersonville Prison

- 1864
- Camp Sumter—Confederate Military Prison
  - Union soldiers captured during the war
- Confined more than 45,000 soldiers
- Condition of prison inhumane (lacked basic necessities)
  - Overcrowded
  - Supplies low
  - Limited food
- 13,000 soldiers died of disease, exposure to heat and cold, and starvation
- Prison commander, Henry Wirz, executed for war crimes
- Highest death rate of any Civil War prison